Re: Response USB Key Loss

Dear Ms. Greenberg:

I am in receipt of your letter of December 20, 2005 regarding the loss of a Lake Travis ISD USB memory key. You allege that [REDACTED] was in possession of the missing memory device. [REDACTED] has already told Ms. Sitton on December 20, 2005 that [REDACTED] was not in possession of any USB memory device. This letter serves to inform you that [REDACTED] does not possess this device or any other Lake Travis ISD USB memory devices.

Has any confidential information regarding our son [REDACTED] been jeopardized by this loss?

Has any of [REDACTED] confidential information covered by FERPA or HIPPA been compromised at any time by the Lake Travis ISD?

Is it the practice of the Lake Travis ISD to expose confidential information?

Who, specifically the name and position of the Lake Travis ISD records custodian, is responsible for the loss of this confidential information?

Your letter acknowledges another example of the negligence regarding confidential information by the Lake Travis ISD.

Sincerely,

David Lovelace
